

JOINT CHECK AGREEMENT

The sole purpose of this agreement is to induce Womack Electric & Supply Company, Inc ("Supplier") to furnish materials to _____ ("Subcontractor") and to provide payment of Womack Electric & Supply Company, Inc invoices on said sales of materials for the _____ ("Project").

This Joint Check Agreement made and entered into the ____ day of _____, 20____, by and among Womack Electric & Supply Co., Inc. ("Supplier"), _____ ("Contractor"), and _____ ("Subcontractor"), for the establishment of a job account for the purchase of certain materials and supplies to be sold by Supplier in the ordinary course of business.

All joint checks shall be issued for material only and payment shall be delivered to Supplier at _____ and upon presentation Subcontractor agrees to endorse the checks. In consideration of and as an inducement for Supplier's extension of credit and sale of materials to Subcontractor on an open account, Contractor and Subcontractor hereby agree that all checks from Contractor for payment of said materials furnished by Supplier for the Project shall be made payable jointly to Supplier and Subcontractor. Subcontractor agrees that Supplier may supply invoices, delivery tickets and any other documents to Contractor to support Supplier's claim for payment.

The total electrical subcontract for this project is in the amount of $_____. This joint check agreement shall include the initial maximum amount of $_____ (Joint Check Amount/Limit) for electrical materials, which amount may be revised only by written agreement of the parties to be memorialized by the execution of an "Amendment to Joint Check Agreement (Revision to Maximum Amount of Agreement)". The parties agree that no retainage shall be withheld from the material payments. The parties further agree to execute partial releases at the time of each payment and each such release shall contain an updated accounting of payments, change orders, and the remaining balance due and owing for material for the project.

All parties agree that the execution or acceptance of this agreement in no way obligates Supplier to extend credit. Supplier has the right to discontinue sales to Contractor or Subcontractor at any time. In the event it becomes necessary to discontinue credit sales, Supplier shall be entitled to receive joint checks or direct payments from Contractor for all materials shipped through the date and for any special orders which cannot be canceled as of the date Supplier gives notice of cancellation to Contractor. In the event of a dispute between Contractor and Subcontractor, Contractor may issue direct payment to Supplier. In the event of a change of relationship between Contractor and Subcontractor, including termination of the Subcontractor for any reason, Contractor agrees to provide Supplier with written and telephonic notice of the termination and to pay Supplier by joint check or directly for all materials ordered or received by Subcontractor through the date of notice by Contractor to Supplier.

This agreement does not change or otherwise modify any rights and/or remedies of collection and payment which Supplier now has by way of credit application, existing open account agreements, guaranties, or applicable state law. This agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of _____.

The undersigned warrant that each has the necessary authority to enter into this agreement. This joint check agreement cannot be altered or revoked without the written consent of Supplier and shall constitute a binding obligation upon the parties, their successors, and assigns.
