Womack Electric Supply is an owning member of IM Supply. IM Supply provides electrical and lighting MRO solutions for multi-site industrial customers throughout the United States. We do it with an independent distribution network of more than 700 locations, each pledged to providing world-class service. The local branches of the independent distribution network allow IM Supply to leverage the group's collective core competencies: cohesion, flexibility, expertise, responsiveness, outstanding customer service, accuracy, and the most important – getting customers what they need when they need it.

IM Supply solves difficult problems faced by customers such as lowering risk, streamlining the procurement process of electrical MRO products, reduction of non-critical inventory costs and inventory management, reducing critical downtime, measurement and verification of expected performance standards, providing local expertise and delivering incremental cost savings. Our primary objective is to make our customers more efficient, productive and profitable.

Womack Electric Supply also provides National Account services via IM Supply. Contact us for more information.
